b) How can we preserve our freedom ?

c) What attitude did we adopt to fight against the British ?

d) What does discipline imply ?

e) Pick out a word from the passage to mean 'to go against'.

f) Suggest a suitable title for the passage.
